The central structure of an experience is its intentionality, its being directed toward something, as it is an experience of or about some object. Phenomenology (Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy) - In philosophy, –self-knowledge– standardly refers to knowledge of one’s own sensations, thoughts, beliefs, and other mental states. At least since Descartes, most philosophers have believed that our knowledge of our own mental states differs markedly from our knowledge of the external world (where this includes our knowledge of others’ thoughts).
